Lehr-Conrad.

BALTIMORE. November 9 .- A beautifully arranged wedding, and one of much importance to society in Baltimore and elsewhere, which took place here today. was that of Miss Marie Worthington Conrad, only daughter of Mrs. Sallie Howard Conrad, and Dr. Louis Charles Lehr of Washington, youngest son of the late Robert Lehr and Mrs. Lehr of this city. Owing, however, to a recent death in the groom's family, the event was celebrated very quietly at the Bel-vedere Hotel, Mrs. Conrad's own residence having been closed several seasons during the absence of the family in other cities or abroad.

The ceremony was performed in red drawing room of the hotel at 1 o'clock, in the presence of the immediats members of the two families only. The north end of the apartment was converted by palms and southern smilax into the semblance of a chapel, against the background of rich, green foliage being placed the prie-dieu, effectively draped with a scarlet covering. Rev. F. X. Brady of Loyola College officiated. The bride entered with her brother, Charles A. Conrad, by whom she was given in marriage. Her gown was a superb one of white satin, embroidered in pearls and exquisitely trimmed with point and duchesse lace. Her tulle vell was caug. with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower of lilies of the valley and gardenias. She had no attendants. The groom's eldest brother, Robert Oliver Lehr, was his best man.

A small breakfast followed, to which a few of the more intimate friends of the bride in the younger set were included in the invitations. This was served in the banquet hall of the ballroom suite, on the top floor, the decorations being entirely of yellow chrysanthemums, with yellow lights. Later Dr. and Mrs. Lehr left on their honeymoon trip, after which they will reside at 2033 Florada avenue, in Washington. Among the outof-town guests at the wedding were the groom's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Symes Lehr; Mrs. Elisha Dyer, jr., of New York; Mrs. Hildegarde Morton of Bordeaux, France, a niece of Dr. Lehr; Mr. and Mrs. Craig Lippincott, Miss Constance Lippincott, Miss Jane Boyden, Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Reeves, Mr. Hare Davies and Miss May Bell of Philadelphia; Dr. and Miss Bayne, Dr. and Mrs. Mitchell, Dr. and Mrs. Mason, Mr. and Miss Russell, Mr. and Mrs. E. Alexander and Mr. H. H. Kerr of Washington.
